7. This Endorsement is part of Policy No. and is otherwise subject to all terms and conditions of that Policy. Terms defined in the Policy have the same meaning in this NOTES

These notes do not form part of AVN52P. They are intended to clarify the background to the clause and further to comment on a drafting issue as an aid to interpretation.

1. BACKGROUND NOTE

The limited write-back clause was drafted at the request of Global Aerospace with support from the Aviation Working Group and LMBC. Changes to the original draft were made following publication of amended draft for consultation. The clause is intended to apply to policies issued to aviation manufacturers only, and not to other policies providing coverage for product

2. DRAFTING NOTE

A number of “blanks” have been inserted for completion by the underwriter and/or the broker. These are largely self-explanatory except in Para 2 - where the intention is that this should be completed in respect of any relevant parts of the Insured where a policy may include multiple names or alternatively just the
