承保範圍	This Policy is amended as follows: 1. KNOWLEDGE OF OCCURRENCE It is agreed that knowledge of an occurrence by an agent, servant or employee of the Insured will not in itself constitute knowledge by the Insured unless such notice has been received by the Insured' s Insurance Administrator. 2. YOUR INADVERTENT FAILURE TO REPORT Notwithstanding any other provision(s) of this Policy, inadvertent errors or omissions and/or failure in furnishing information, notification or reports required will not prejudice the coverage afforded by this Policy provided you notify us within a reasonable time after the error or omission is discovered. 3. FAILURE TO NOTIFY The Insured' s rights under this Policy will not be affected if it fails to give notice of an accident or occurrence solely because it reasonably believed that the accident or occurrence was not covered under this Policy. All other provisions of this Policy remain the same.
